Type

The Executive Student Council will discuss and review and may take action on the initiative to organize the November Scholarship Fundraising Task Force that will operate for all of October to have an event ready for November. A variety of organizations and individuals want to give back to GWC in an effective and sustaining way. Raising scholarship funds on the ground has always been difficult for a club to pull off on their own. Embracing the uniqueness of the online platform and collaborating with diverse areas, particularly areas of the greatest need, can make a significant difference in funding during the month of November. It will conclude by offering aid to peers filling out scholarship apps during the month of December.
